

RESEARCH IMPACT: REALISING THE POTENTIAL CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

DAY 1 — TUESDAY 21 NOVEMBER 2017

VENUE: DUNEDIN PUBLIC ART GALLERY

Time	Event
3:30pm–4:45pm	Registration and Networking
4:45pm–5:00pm	Mihi Whakatau Mark Brunton (Kaitakawaenga Rangahau Māori, University of Otago)
5:00pm–5:30pm	Introductions Speaker: Associate Prof. Debra Waters (University of Otago)
5:30pm–6:30pm	Public Lecture Title: By the people, for the people: Falls prevention and the story of Steady As You Go (SAYGO) Speakers: Stephanie Clare (CEO, Age Concern), Margaret Dando (Age Concern Otago), Susan Davidson, Assoc. Prof. Debra Waters
6:30pm–7:30pm	Drinks, Nibbles and Networking

DAY 2 — WEDNESDAY 22 NOVEMBER 2017

VENUE: DUNEDIN PUBLIC ART GALLERY

Time	Event
9:00am–10:00am	Plenary Session Title: What are the characteristics of high performance, high impact translational research organisations: “Research on Research” Speaker: Prof. Steve Wesselingh (South Australian Health & Medical Research Institute [SAMRI]) Title: The LiLACS NZ journey: A bicultural ageing study Speaker: Prof. Ngaire Kerse (University of Auckland) Title: Understanding the SPIRIT framework for research impact informing health policy Speaker: Prof. Fiona Blyth (University of Sydney)
10:00am–10:30am	Morning Tea and Networking
10:30am–12:00pm	Case Studies of Stakeholders and Researchers Working Together Title: Development and delivery of a self-management fatigue programme for people with multiple sclerosis Facilitator: Dr Hilda Mulligan (University of Otago, Christchurch) Title: Establishing a lay health navigator service on the West Coast to support those living with complex health and social conditions Facilitator: Dr Fiona Doolan-Noble (University of Otago) Title: Parks for all: co-creating inclusive parks and play areas in Porirua, New Zealand Facilitator: Dr Meredith Perry (University of Otago, Wellington)

RESEARCH IMPACT: REALISING THE POTENTIAL CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

DAY 2 — WEDNESDAY 22 NOVEMBER 2017

VENUE: DUNEDIN PUBLIC ART GALLERY

Time	Event
12:00pm–1:00pm	Lunch and Networking
1:00pm–3:00pm	Impact Workshops: Models of Impact Workshop 1: Health policy and research exchange Facilitators: Prof. Fiona Blyth (University of Sydney) and Assoc. Prof. Sonia Wutzke (Sax Institute) Workshop 2: Health care delivery and communities Facilitators: Prof. Steve Wesselingh (SAMRI) and Prof. Ngaire Kerse (University of Auckland). Workshop 3: Business and commercialisation of research Facilitators: Dr Marcus King (Callaghan Innovation) and Assoc. Prof. Robert Aitken (University of Otago)
3:00pm–3:30pm	Afternoon Tea and Networking
3:30pm–4:45pm	Impact Across the National Science Challenges: Round Table Panel Title: Kaumātua mana motuhake: Kaumātua managing life transitions through tuakana-teina/peer education Speakers: Professor Brendan Hokowhitu, Dr Mary Simpson and Rangimahora Reddy (Ageing Well National Science Challenge) Title: The challenges and opportunities of co-design partnerships Speakers: Dr Lisa Te Morenga, Crystal Pekepo and Debbie Goodwin (Healthier Lives National Science Challenge) Title: Engagement with communities of learning: A case study Speaker: Assoc. Prof. Brigid McNeill (A Better Start National Science Challenge)
4:45pm–5:00pm	Closing Remarks Speaker: Prof. David Baxter (Ageing Well National Science Challenge)